HEALTH & MISSIONS

Having been hospitalized so many times, some people would wonder why we have not given up and gone home! The simple answer is that God has not called us to! On a couple of occasions, we have thought about it, but then we knew we needed to stay in God's plans. Has it been easy? No, it has been right the opposite, also for Christa who has had to watch me suffer and I suppose that is the most painful part.

As I read about so many famous missionaries, my suffering is nothing compared to theirs. Hudson Taylor faced many sicknesses, as did Amy Carmichael Amy who was often weak and in pain so great that she was confined to her bed for weeks at a time. But our life in a Third World country that is over-run with Mafia drug-gangs, has also been filled with many challenges. For Christa is the loneliness and no real friend to talk to. That is one real challenge for her. For me is to get around on crutches. But I thank God I can still preach. I can still share the Gospel. I can still help the poor and that is what He has called us to do.

There are still many people in Guatemala that need the Good News.

Pray for us daily, the devil hates us and we truly need prayer warriors as we fight the battle on the front line. Is this sacrifice worth it? A definite yes! "All God's giants have been weak men, who did great things for God because they reckoned on His being with them." Hudson Taylor.

CHRISTMAS

May we please ask you to help us to help the children to have a wonderful Christmas party. Each year we purchase a gift for each child. Because of the poverty in this country not all parents are able to purchase gifts for their children. Last year it was so wonderful to see their joy and their eyes light up as they received their gifts. If you want to help, please send to one of the addresses below marked "Christmas." Thank you in advance.
