CHURCH

This past two months have seen many changes in the building as the youth have worked hard to see how they wanted it. I must admit that the finished work looks fresh and a better lighting system. But there has also been changes spiritually with the commencement of a monthly men's group and a women's group. The youth group continue to meet once a week, sometimes in a lovely atmosphere of someone's garden where they have a discussion group and where they discuss their next evangelism outreach will take place, plus visiting the sick of the church. With new members I feel it is also time to run a seminar on personal evangelism. I love to see a busy church!

HEALTH

The good news is that our Pastor Juan Carlos has improved on his health and is now back in the pulpit teaching the Word of God. My recovery from my operation is taking much longer to get back to full recovery. A second ailment of a urinary infection was so bad that I literally went two nights without a minute's sleep. Now with the right treatment I am starting to feel much better. However, I have been feeling extremely tired and have decided to take a break for one month, rather than have burnout. I ask for your prayers during this time.

VISIT OF KINGSLEY ARMSTRONG

This month I was so happy to receive a special friend. I have known Kingsley for over 30 years, and it's always been a joy when he visits me and often shares a message in our church. Pastor Kingsley Armstrong is the Director of International Gospel Outreach (IGO) located in the UK of which I am a member. It is a caring fellowship that spans the world, linking together churches, Christian organizations, missionaries, Christian workers and intercessors from many backgrounds, and for this reason he travels so often across the world, and yet, still finds time to get to Guatemala. Thanks, my friend.
